1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. This includes not only sales and purchases but also the various expenses incurred in the course of business. It is essential that these records be kept up-to-date and organized in a manner that allows for easy retrieval and analysis.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. This includes the use of statistical techniques to identify trends and patterns in the data, as well as the use of computer software to automate the data collection process. It is important to choose the appropriate method for each type of data and to ensure that the data is collected in a consistent and reliable manner.

3. The third part of the document discusses the various factors that can affect the accuracy of the data. These factors include the quality of the data collection process, the reliability of the data sources, and the potential for bias or error in the data analysis. It is important to be aware of these factors and to take steps to minimize their impact on the results of the analysis.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the various ways in which the data can be used. This includes the use of the data to identify areas for improvement, to develop new products or services, and to make strategic decisions about the future of the business. It is important to ensure that the data is used in a responsible and ethical manner and that the results of the analysis are communicated in a clear and concise manner.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the various challenges that can arise in the course of the data collection and analysis process. These challenges include the difficulty of obtaining accurate data, the potential for bias or error in the data analysis, and the need for ongoing monitoring and evaluation of the data collection process. It is important to be aware of these challenges and to take steps to address them as they arise.

From 1870 Census:

Margaret Simpson	50	born 1820-	Amanda's mother, Margaret Lucinda Voyles Simpson
Leonard	27	born 1843	Probably Leonard Miller
Barbara C.	16	born 1854	Leonard's wife, Barbara Simps.
Andrew A.	1	born 1869	Probably Andrew Addison, and called elsewhere, Addison
Isaac Simpson	26	born 1844	Amanda's brother
Amanda	24	born 1842	Amanda Colvin, wife
Mary L.	2	born 1868-1959	m. George Goss
George	9/12	born 1869
Taylor	21	born 1849-1901	Isaac's brother

From the 1860 Census:

Addison Simpson appears to be living with the Millers or they are living with him. Addison and Margaret Voyles were married in 1840. He was listed as 40 years old, but could be 42 or 43 as we have his actual birth date as 1817. They are all listed under #036. The Millers were Jacob, age 41, and John R. Miller, age 80. Not sure why they are living with Addison. Although a year later Amanda Simpson and Rudolph Henry Miller are married. (It may be they were living "next door") just means they lived close (on the same page)

#040, is the home of Rudolph and Henry Miller, probably just down the road. Amanda would still be at home with her father, Addison, as she was only 14 at this time. They were married the next year. Rudolph Henry Miller was 13 years older than Amanda and they were married when she was just 15 years old. They had their first baby in Nov., a year later. They had a little girl in 1864, and in November of that year they lost both of the children. It was within 5 days of one another.

So in 1860, Henry (father) and Rudolph (son) were living together. Rudolph is 27, and Henry is 52.

And just down the road lives the Simpson family with 14 year old Amanda. They, the Simpsons and the Millers may already be interrelated, but not sure until Rudolph marries Amanda Simpson. Yes, we find that Addison's brother, William, married Julia Miller who was the sister of Rudolph in 1857, but they may have just been close neighbors. Or there could be a marriage in the older generations somewhere. There were a lot of Millers, Simpsons, and Voyles in the area at that time so no doubt there were other relationships.

1. The first of the four main points is that the government should improve the quality of the education system. This is a very important point because the quality of the education system is the foundation of the country's future. The government should invest more in education and ensure that all children have access to a good education.

The second point is that the government should improve the quality of the health care system. This is also a very important point because the health of the population is essential for the country's development. The government should invest more in health care and ensure that all people have access to a good health care system.

The third point is that the government should improve the quality of the infrastructure. This is also a very important point because the infrastructure is the backbone of the country's economy. The government should invest more in infrastructure and ensure that all parts of the country have access to a good infrastructure.

The fourth point is that the government should improve the quality of the environment. This is also a very important point because the environment is essential for the country's development. The government should invest more in the environment and ensure that all parts of the country have access to a good environment.

In conclusion, the government should improve the quality of the education system, the health care system, the infrastructure, and the environment. These are the four main points that the government should focus on to ensure the country's future development.

Question	Answer	Mark
1. A number is 15 less than 3 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 107, find the numbers.	Let the first number be x and the second number be y . $x = 3y - 15$ $x + y = 107$ $3y - 15 + y = 107$ $4y = 122$ $y = 30.5$ $x = 3(30.5) - 15 = 76.5$ The numbers are 76.5 and 30.5.	5
2. A number is 10 more than 2 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 100, find the numbers.	Let the first number be x and the second number be y . $x = 2y + 10$ $x + y = 100$ $2y + 10 + y = 100$ $3y = 90$ $y = 30$ $x = 2(30) + 10 = 70$ The numbers are 70 and 30.	5
3. A number is 20 less than 4 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 120, find the numbers.	Let the first number be x and the second number be y . $x = 4y - 20$ $x + y = 120$ $4y - 20 + y = 120$ $5y = 140$ $y = 28$ $x = 4(28) - 20 = 92$ The numbers are 92 and 28.	5
4. A number is 12 more than 3 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 110, find the numbers.	Let the first number be x and the second number be y . $x = 3y + 12$ $x + y = 110$ $3y + 12 + y = 110$ $4y = 98$ $y = 24.5$ $x = 3(24.5) + 12 = 85.5$ The numbers are 85.5 and 24.5.	5

5. A number is 18 less than 5 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 130, find the numbers.

Let the first number be x and the second number be y .
 $x = 5y - 18$
 $x + y = 130$
 $5y - 18 + y = 130$
 $6y = 148$
 $y = 24.67$
 $x = 5(24.67) - 18 = 103.33$
The numbers are 103.33 and 24.67.

6. A number is 25 more than 2 times another number. If the sum of the two numbers is 150, find the numbers.

Let the first number be x and the second number be y .
 $x = 2y + 25$
 $x + y = 150$
 $2y + 25 + y = 150$
 $3y = 125$
 $y = 41.67$
 $x = 2(41.67) + 25 = 108.33$
The numbers are 108.33 and 41.67.

Rowan County, North Carolina History and Genealogy

Rowan county was formed in 1753 from Anson county. In 1770 Surry, and in 1777 Burke counties were severally taken off, previous to which separations Anson county comprehended most of the western portion of North Carolina and Tennessee. Like a venerable mother, Rowan beholds with parental complacency and delight her prosperous children comfortably settled around her. Salisbury, her capital, derives its name from a handsome town in England, situated on the banks of the classic Avon, and near the noted Salisbury Plain, a dry, "chalky surface", which accounts for the origin of its Saxon name, which means a "dry town".

Rowan was first settled by Protestants, about 1720-25, from Moravia, fleeing from the persecutions of Ferdinand, the Second, by the Scotch, after the unsuccessful attempts of Charles Edward (commonly called the "Pretender") to ascend the English throne, and by the Irish, after the rebellion of the Earls of Tyrone and Tyrconnell, who were offered their pardon on condition of their emigrating to America and in assisting to colonize the English possessions there. The staid prudence of the German, the keen sagacity of the Scotch, and fiery ardor of the Irish commingled on American soil, and were fit materials to form the elemental foundations of an "industrious, progressive" and "independent" nation.

The early history of Rowan, and of her distinguished sons, affords of itself ample materials to fill an instructive volume. Within her borders resided such venerable patriots as Matthew Locke, Moses Winslow, Griffith Rutherford, John Brevard, William Sharpe, Samuel Young, William Kennon, Adlai Osborne, Francis McCorkle, James Brandon, James McCay, and many others, all true and constant friends of liberty; but alas! how little of their eminent services has been preserved. Even yet, it is believed, some one of her gifted sons might do much in collecting from traditional sources, and from her musty records a rich store of historical facts, hitherto unwritten, illustrative of the fair name and fame of her Revolutionary career. SIMPSON LETTER OF ANCESTRY

Jacksonville, July 4th, 1874

Dear Daughter, I am trying to comply with your request in riting out the history of my ancestors. Which I find is hard to do as I never practice riting much for many years. Therefore you will find many blunders and miss spelt words and mistakes. All these will be an error of the head and not of the hart for I find the task much more troublsome to rite and to think.

As to my great grandfather Simpson, he came from Wales about the 15th (17th?) century. Raised a family wich my grandfather was the oldest and according to the English law at that time was the legal heir. But his maring (marrying) contrary to his father's will, was disinherited and he left Massachusetts and came to North Carolina, McLinberge County and lived their. His first wife died their and their he married Grandmother, a young woman. Her maden name was Elizabeth Hawkins, a tall spar built lady and by her they had six children and then moved to South Carolina when their children was most grown.

Their first born was a girl and called her Elcy. She married Reuben Adams cozin and they raised 9 girls and one son when in the Georgia state.

This is the end of the letter, except that the person who typed this letter, says they tried to copy it just as it was written. If there was more on the family it isn't posted here. It is possible that Elcy was the line through which this person's daughter was connected and this writer did not feel they needed to go any further. It is not addressed to anyone by name, and not signed by anyone by name.

From this we can understand that for this family

the original Simpson settler came to Massachusetts from Wales

His son, Will, disinherited, moved to Meckleburg Co., NC - brought wife #1 Ely. Sherrell

The first wife died and he married Elizabeth Hawkins

The marriage took place in Rowan Co., NC on January 28, 1768.

They had a daughter Elcy who married either Reuben Adams, who was a cousin, or she married a cousin of Reuben Adams.

No more children are listed but the story is that they had 6 children.

The marriage was in 1768

Our Isaac was born in 1786, so possible that he was a son.

Others on the list of marriages that could be of the six were:

Isaac born 1786, married Elizabeth Birely in 1816 with Jesse Simpson as a bondsman

Isaac moved to Washington Co., IN

Benjamin married Ann Holshouser in 1818, with John Simpson as a bondsman

William Simpson married Betsy Swisgood in 1813, with Isaac Simpson as a bondsman

Obediah Simpson married Lucintha Noland in 1823 (He also moved to Wash. Co., IN)

Samuel Simpson married Sarah Hooker in 1816

Also a Rignall (Reginald?) Simpson married Anny Burgett in 1794.

There are several Wills, and Williams, so must be more than one family in the area.

Then we have a John Simson, Simpson who married Rachel Wills in 1787 and

A Ross Simpson who married Elizabeth Adams in 1787. Those were the only other early marriages listed. But if Isaac was born in 1786, he would have been born before John and Ross were married.

If ~~if~~ Isaac parent's were William and Elizabeth Hawkins Simpson, married in 1768, then we have his ancestors traced back to Massachusetts and they might not be that hard to trace. Wish the above letter continued on with the other 5 children.

Proposed family:

Father: William Will Simpson

Mother: Elizabeth Hawkins

1. Elcy who married an Adams
3. Rignall who married Anny Burgett in 1794
2. William, who married Betsy Swisgood in 1813
3. Isaac, who married Elizabeth Birely in 1816
4. Benjamin, who married Ann Holshouser in 1818
5. Obediah, who married Lucintha Noland in 1824
6. Samuel, who married Sarah Hooker in 1826

There were also two other Williams who married in 1826 and 1827. So more than one family around. Seems there was quite a space of time between 1768 and the earliest marriage there of Rignall in 1794 and the next marriage in 1813. But yet hard to fit in another generation.

And we have a John Simpson and a Jesse Simpson listed with some of the marriages.

Married in 1768, even being young, her childbearing years would be to about 1798 to 1802 at the most. And we have no idea of their birthdates either except for Isaac. If married at 20 years (Isaac must have been 30) Estimate here at 20 to 30 years

Rignall, born maybe 1770 to 1774

William, born maybe 1783 to 1793

Isaac born 1786

Benjamin, born maybe 1788 to 1798

Obediah, born maybe 1794 — census 1798-1800

Samuel, born maybe 1796

Elizabeth could have been a 16 year old bride, or even less, marrying an older man. Perhaps his first wife died before they could even have children.

Obediah was born in 1755, near Wilmington, North Carolina (very possibly Cape Fare). Evidence indicates that his parents were planters, but no records have ever been uncovered and even their names remain a mystery to this day. It is known, however, that Obediah had at least one brother, William, who also settled in Canada.

The Simpson family fought as Loyalists during the conflicts between the Colonies and Great Britain when the Colonies fought to sever their ties to the Monarchy. Those British colonists who refused to take up arms against the Crown became known as United Empire Loyalists. After the war, they were literally forced to leave their homes in the newly-formed United States. Many of them escaped with what they could and made their way north into Canada where land was plenty and the freedom to remain British was theirs to enjoy. Very quickly, Loyalists became the most important group in Canada and were the founders of many Canadian towns.

At the age of 21, in 1776, Obediah Simpson upheld his family's beliefs and joined a Loyalist group known as the Delancey's Horse. (The Delanceys were a prominent New York family which had raised three regiments with sworn loyalty to the King.) After the war, the Delanceys moved to New Brunswick, in the Maritimes, to make their new homes.

Obediah fought with the Delancey's Horse until he went to Westchester and met his future bride, Mary Lord Taylor, who may well have been the daughter of the founders of the original 'Lord and Taylor Merchants Store' in New York City. Obediah and Mary were married in 1783, the same year that the British were forced to evacuate New York. Obediah and his new bride sailed with the group to Antigonish, Nova Scotia, where Obediah learned the trade of ship carpentry.

Obediah Simpson, Late of Cape Fare in North Carolina, but now of Cumberland in Nova Scotia, maketh Oath and Saith; that he resided at Cumberland from the 15th of July, 1783 to the 25th of March 1784, and this Deponent further saith, that he was utterly incapable of proffering or delivering to the Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament, dated in the 23rd year of his Present Majesty's Reign, entitled, an Act for appointing Commissioners, to enquire into the names and services of all such Persons who have suffered in their rights, properties and professions during the late unhappy in America in consequence of their Loyalty to his Majesty and attachment to the British Government, or at their office any Memorials, claim or request for aid or relief on account of this Deponents service during the late unhappy in America, within the time allowed by the said Act for receiving such claims, by this reason that this Deponent during all such time, v.z., between the 15th of July, 1783 and the 25th of March 1784, lived or resided at Cumberland and afore said.

Army in May 1779, as a private in Captain Purdy's Company, Commanded by James Delancey, and continued so till the Evacuation of New York, and then Embarked for Nova Scotia.

Obediah Simpson

Sworn before me at Amherst,

William Blake, J.P.

By 1791, however, Obediah was back in the 'States'. Whether he was unsatisfied with the carpentry business or he was just plain 'homesick' is unknown. Nevertheless, he ended up in Westchester County again where he attempted to join the militia. The official certification of his rejection follows:

*Mr. Simpson of Captain Haw's Co.,
Colonel Strangs' Regiment of West Chester County, Militia, is unfit for military service by reason of a game leg.*

R. Adams, Surgeon

Banished once again from New York by the Patriots, Obediah took his small family along the Hudson and Mohawk Rivers to Lake Oneida, then down the Oswego River to Lake Ontario. From there, Obediah sailed by way of Sackett's Harbor, Cape Vincent, and Kingston, finally arriving in Adolphustown in July, 1792. By this time, many Loyalist evacuees had arrived and settled before him and most of the available land was already taken. Obediah worked shares for 4 years, but again he was not satisfied with his situation and decided another change was in order.

In February of 1796, he took his eldest son, John (12 years old), a team of oxen, and one cow, and travelled along the Bay of Quinte to what is now Presqu'ile Bay. Obediah stayed long enough to build a small log hut for his son and a shelter for the cattle, then strapped on a pair of snowshoes and hiked back to Adolphustown. For 6 weeks, John was left alone to fend for himself and to take care of the small, but vital, herd. Obediah returned by boat, along with the rest of the family, in the spring. Having secured a land grant while in Adolphustown, Obediah Simpson was to become the first settler in what is now the Town of Brighton. The Simpson Family of Brighton took root.

The bearer Obadiah Simpson 30 years of age, born in North Carolina professing the Catholic religion and by trade a ship carpenter, having been this day examined by me, and taken the oaths prescribed by law, is recommended for a location of 200 acres of land within this district provided it does not appear from the surveyor's books that he has any prior grant of lands in any part of this Province.

Alex Fisher, J.P.

The land was a gift from John Graves Simcoe, the first Lieutenant Governor of Upper Canada who, in 1792, made this offer of free land to encourage settlement. Nevertheless, prior to Obediah's arrival in the Brighton area, there were only 4 recorded settlers on the west side of the Trent River. A bridge, built in 1834, opened the area and land quickly became scarce and very expensive. With a naturally protected harbour, prime agricultural land and plenty of fresh water, Brighton was the perfect place to make a home. And Obediah Simpson was the first.

Brighton's founding pioneer died at the age of 54. His wife, Mary, died at 45. They were buried on a small island near the entrance to Presqu'ile Provincial Park (see map above), although the exact location of the graves is unknown. The island is still owned by the Simpson family and is very likely to remain so. A few hundred metres away, just outside the gates to the park, stands a cairn erected from granite stones taken from the original homestead. Originally erected in 1931, it is faced with an engraved marble slab with an arrow pointing to the gravesites and reads:

IN YONDER SAND DUNE LIE THE REMAINS OF THE
FIRST SETTLER OF BRIGHTON DISTRICT
OBADIAH SIMPSON OF NORTH CAROLINA
1756 - 1809
AND HIS WIFE
MARY LORR OF WESTCHESTER COUNTY, N.Y.

MARY LORD OF WESTCHESTER COUNTY N.Y.

1760 - 1805

U. E. LOYALIST DELANCY'S REGT.

SETTLED ON LOT 4 CONC. 2

THEN TWP OF CRAMAHE

NOW THE TOWN OF BRIGHTON

MARCH 1796

For years, the cairn was left untended and fell into major disrepair. The proud 'centerpiece' of the Simpson Family became little more than a pile of rocks. However, for the bi-centennial of Obediah's arrival, we managed to gather enough money to reconstruct the cairn. It stands again, as it did over 60 years ago, for anyone entering or leaving Presqu'ile to see. It is now maintained regularly from privately donated funds.

APPENDIX A

LISTS OF LOYALISTS

The following lists contain a large number of names of both soldiers and civilians in North Carolina who supported the Crown throughout the Revolution. In many instances added interest is given by including their residence and profession. While these lists do not claim to include the names of all the Tories of the state, they are representative of that group who were interested enough to take an active part. Prior to the making of these transcripts it was impossible to locate by name or profession any considerable number of Tories in the state. The names given here and in the following appendices probably include the greater number of the more prominent Loyalists. The sources from which these documents are derived, are indicated in brackets at the end of each document. The reproduction of these documents without editorial changes accounts for any unusual spelling of proper names and the crude wording of the reports of some of the Loyalist officers.

simpson letter

Untitled

Dear Mother I am trying to comply with your request in writing out the history of my ancestors. Which I find it hard to do as I never practice writing much for many years. Therefore you will find many blunders and misspelt words and mistakes, all these will be an error of the hand and not of the heart for I find the task much more troublesome to write and to think.

As to my great grand father Simpson he came from Wales about the fifteenth (17th?) century. Raised a family with my Grand Father was oldest and according to the English law at that time was the legal heir. But his marrying contrary to his Fathers Will, was disinheritred and he left Massachusetts and came to North Carolina, Mecklenburg county and lived there. His first wife died and then he married Grand Mother, a young woman her maiden name was Elizabeth Perkins, a tall Spar built lady and by her they had six children and then moved to South Carolina when their children was near grown.

Their first born was a girl and called her name Eliza. She married James Perkins: they raised 7 girls one son and lived in the State of South.

* Note: I am copying this letter exactly as I see it written. A (C) means that I either could not decipher the writing, or that I did not understand the meaning.

William Simpson

Birth1748inRowan, North Carolina, United States

Death1820inVienna, Johnson, Illinois, United States

One says that William married Elizabeth Sherrill, and she died in 1763

Married 2nd, Elizabeth Hawkins, born 1745, in 1768 and died 1820

William died 1820 in Logan, KY

He and Elizabeth Hocking had a daughter Eleanor, 1772-1851

One says he married Elizabeth Betsy Sherrill, she died 1850

and had a son, Archibald, born 1780

Source of Sherril name gives William Sherril, son of Adam and Elizabeth. No information if that was Elizabeth's father or not.

Archibald Simpson married Catherine Nelson, no dates or places

From 5 pages of family trees no one can give us the children of William and Elizabeth Hawkins. Or if he had a previous wife, the children of that union. One does list an Eleanor, an Archibald, and the letter itself gives the name of Elcy. (might that be Eleanor?) It appears that they have all copied from some source as a lot is the same. Two different places of death though, from NC, Ill, and KY. Too far back to find Census records with names of children.
